PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 106th CONGRESS, SECOND SESSION

Vol. 146

WASHINGTON, THURSDAY, MARCH 30, 2000

No. 38

House of Representatives

The House met at 10 a.m.

The Chaplain, the Reverend Daniel P. Coughlin, offered the following prayer: "If today you hear God's voice, harden not your hearts."

Speak to us, O Lord. Soothe our spirits. May Your voice quicken in us Your saving grace. When we are confused or disheartened, be attentive to us and give us purity of heart. When we are called upon to speak Your word of justice or defend the weak and the poor, strengthen us for Your purpose.

May the words of Your Holy Scriptures guide us in our search and enlighten our minds. May the beauty of the trees and their blossoms, the spring air, touch our creative souls and help us to bring forth a new Earth and a new vision to resolve difficulties and produce peace among Your people.

May the cry for bread or for water, the struggle for the prisoner's freedom and the needs of the very least in our midst be heard as Your own voice arresting our attention. For Your word is truth, and the truth will set us free.

Speak, Lord. This whole day Your servants are listening. Speak, Lord, and we will obey.

"If today you hear God's voice, harden not your hearts." Amen.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. YOUNG of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks on H.R. 3908, and that I may include tabular and extraneous material.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Florida?

Mr. HOYER. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, would the gentleman from Florida (Mr. YOUNG) briefly tell us what the schedule will be today?

Mr. YOUNG of Florida. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman would yield, it is my intent to expedite the completion of this supplemental. We have, as the gentleman understands, from last evening's unanimous consent request, we have a number of amendments that were agreed to that would be considered.

We will proceed in the regular order and consider those amendments, and I would expect we would roll the votes on some of them and hopefully complete our business on this bill as we approach the noon hour, or shortly thereafter. That would be my hope and my intent.

Mr. HOYER. Mr. Speaker, further reserving the right to object, I thank the gentleman for his comments on that. As he knows, we were hopeful that perhaps we could get a matter that was of some controversy last night out of the way. If the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. WELDON) gets here in the next few seconds, and I am hoping to see him come through the door because, happily, we have resolved that issue, I think, on both sides with all the relevant parties.

I know the gentleman is on his way. He will be here in a second I am told by his advance person.

Mr. YOUNG of Florida. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman would continue to yield, I would like to advise Members that it is my intent to expedite consideration, so I would be objecting to any extra time above and beyond the rule.

Mr. HOYER. Mr. Speaker, further reserving the right to object, the gentleman from Florida has informed me of that and, as always, I know the gentleman will be eminently fair. The Speaker is in the chair, and I would like to say as one member of the Committee on Appropriations, but I think
